

The U.S. Department of Labor's 2010 Enforcement Agenda

Learn how to prepare in just 75 minutes!

Date: Tuesday, March 30, 2010

Time: 11 a.m. (ET) / 10 a.m. (CT) / 9 a.m. (MT) / 8 a.m. (PT)

Length: 75 Minutes

Speaker: Alexander J. Passantino, Of Counsel, Seyfarth Shaw LLP

Registration Fee: $99

Register Now: <http://eo2.commpartners.com/users/abc/register.php?id=6963>

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE

This webinar is designed for contractors and construction professionals with the following titles:

- CFOs
- Human resources executives
- In-house labor and employment counsel

WEBINAR DESCRIPTION

During her first year in office, Secretary of Labor Hilda Solis vowed more aggressive enforcement of workplace laws, with government contractors and construction employers identified as possible targets for investigation.

In this webinar, get an exclusive look at the Department of Labor's (DOL) enforcement agenda for 2010, including expectations that the agency will conduct comprehensive investigations, file more lawsuits, and assess fines and penalties with increased frequency and severity. This increased enforcement is intended to, in the words of Secretary Solis, "send a message" to employers.

Failure to comply with workplace laws has never been a more costly risk, so it's crucial to find out how to make sure your company can avoid being a target.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

This timely webinar is designed to help you:

1. Identify the areas specifically for government contractors and construction employers in which the DOL will focus its resources
2. Explain the most common and costly wage and hour errors made by employers—and learn steps to ensure you don't make them!
3. Understand best practices to ensure compliance with the DOL's enforcement agenda to keep your company free of investigations, lawsuits, fines and penalties.

Register Now: <http://eo2.commpartners.com/users/abc/register.php?id=6963>

For more information about this webinar, visit www.abc.org/dolenforcementwebinar.

Questions?

Contact the ABC Meetings Department at meetings@abc.org.

