Understanding NJ Prevailing Wage and Contractor Registration

New Jersey's Prevailing Wage Act is no easy matter. Getting work is tough enough; filling out cumbersome and confusing paperwork makes it even more of a challenge. And, when a technical error in completing those complicated forms could result in a fine or other penalty, you know it is time to learn how to do it the right way.

An official from the New Jersey Department of Labor (NJ DOL) and Workforce Development will be on-hand to explain the nuts and bolts of the New Jersey Prevailing Wage Act. They will walk us through the process of doing work on public contracts and compliance with the requirements of the Prevailing Wage Act and will answer any questions you might have.

NJ DOL Speaker:

Ashleigh Chamberlain, District Supervisor, Public Contracts Section overseeing investigations
