ABC-NJ Endorses David Richter for New Jersey U.S. House of Representatives 3rd Congressional District

Mount Laurel, NJ—Associated Builders and Contractors New Jersey today announced the endorsement of David Richter (R-Toms River) to represent the 3rd Congressional District of New Jersey in the U.S. House of Representatives.

“Mr. Richter’s vision for a strong economy, cuts in taxes, and strengthening local and small businesses, is the pro-growth, open competition philosophy ABC-NJ supports,” said Sam Fiocchi, President, ABC-NJ. “His experience in both the legal and business sectors positions him to make legislative decisions that will help New Jersey businesses, no matter the size, succeed, grow, and create jobs, while reducing the burden on taxpayers.”

“We believe Mr. Richter will work to uphold the ABC-NJ values of free enterprise and fair competition for the opportunity to be awarded contracts regardless of labor affiliation,” continued Fiocchi.

ABC’s New Jersey Chapter is the leading voice promoting free enterprise within the state’s construction industry. It is founded on the merit shop philosophy that encourages open competition and a free-enterprise approach that awards contracts based solely on merit, regardless of labor affiliation. ABC exists to help members develop people, win work, and deliver that work safely, ethically, and profitably for the betterment of the communities in which ABC and its members work.

About Associated Builders and Contractors

ABC is a national association representing 21,000 merit shop construction and construction-related firms in 69 Chapters across the United States. Our membership represents all specialties within the U.S. construction industry and is comprised primarily of firms that perform work in the industrial and commercial sectors of the industry. ABC-NJ is the industry's liaison to federal, state, and local governments and the public at large. For more information, please visit our website at www.abcnjc.org.
